doctoral thesis dissertation from the year 2009 in the subject literature comparative literature grade p h d language english abstract this doctoral thesis investigates otherness through works which have thoroughly examined and questioned the creation of a stable self by putting it in dialogue with its others and to society as a whole namely william butler yeats s selected poems james joyce s dubliners 1914 joseph conrad s heart of darkness 1899 chinua achebe s things fall apart 1958 and assia djebar s I amour la fantasia 1985 by representing the results of english belgian and french oppression in tangible material terms as well as its spiritual bankruptcies these writers mark their works as clearly critical of the colonial regime and opposed to colonial exploitation positioning themselves as postcolonial through their representations in this sense their texts raise issues debated in current postcolonial discussions speaking in the voice of the oppressed in the language of the oppressor as a weapon to make cultural difference visible these writers analyse the problem of identity crisis displacement disintegration and the effects of colonialism on the culture and psyche of the colonised subject despite their differing conceptions of irishness both william butler yeats and james joyce repudiated things english and helped to defend their history as well as regain pride in their race the other in these writers is presented not in terms of colour but conceived in relation to city countryside past present and protestant catholic the theoretical questions that haunted chinua achebe s career as a writer were also prompted by the desire to re orientate cultural discourse and initiate a discourse of resistance in his commitment to questions relating to identity and the relationship of the individual and history. Achebe like the above mentioned Irish writers contributed to the analysis of colonisation and the natives' resistance to oppression both at the level of the individual and that of the nation. As another marginalised writer, Joseph Conrad anticipated Yeats's prophecy in his 1921 poem 'The Second Coming' several years earlier with the publication of Heart of Darkness. Whereas Yeats saw the spiral shapes of history, Conrad saw the emptiness at the centre of civilisation and the atrocities at the margins. He showed the hollow morality at the centre of the imperialist enterprise, one that could not hold. He too wrote about the paralysis of modern society, the disruption of traditional society under the impact of intruding forces.

Research paper undergraduate from the year 2011 in the subject literature Africa course African literature African studies language English abstract feminism takes different dimensions. The men-haters who are the extremists and the moderates who seek for dialogue between the genders for mutual benefits among the extremists are Julia Kristeva. She calls for a non-sexist language. Julie Irigaray's thesis was her medium of launching attacks against Freud's light/darkness imagery. This work titled Speculum de l'autre femme (Speculum of the Other Woman) brought her expulsion from Lacan's École Freudienne at Vincennes. Helene Cixous took men on the sexist binary opposition.
